EDMONTON EPARCHY ACOLYTE CAMP

March 2014

Слава Ісусу Христу!

Dear Parents:

One of the unique aspects of the Edmonton Eparchy Acolyte Camp is the work that is done each year by the parent volunteers to organize and operate the Acolyte Camp.

Through their efforts the Acolyte Camp is able to:

- provide a safe environment for the Acolytes to learn about their religion and enjoy the amenities of the camp;
- maintain the registration fees at a low level over the years;
- provide varied and wholesome meals with many being 'homemade' not from a package;
- provide liturgical resources, rockets and other crafts to take home at the end of camp;
- arrange for special guests to come and speak to the Acolytes;
- purchase and maintain the swimming pool which has been invaluable with the swimming ban imposed by Alberta Health Services in Pigeon Lake over the past years; and
- make available items (i.e. sporting equipment) for exclusive use by those attending Acolyte Camp that you may not see when you drop off or pick up your son(s).

These volunteers take their personal and vacation time to do this work so that your son(s) can attend the Acolyte Camp. The Edmonton Eparchy Acolyte Camp Committee is asking you to consider assisting with the Acolyte Camp to ensure its future. Volunteering is not easy but God has hidden rewards that seem to appear during camp and is one of the reasons that many of the volunteers keep coming back. Each year, the camp executive tries to add new activities or to have extra activities planned in the event that the weather is less than perfect. If you have a special talent, hobby, or project, which you think, might be appropriate, please submit your idea with a brief description and we will try to fit it in.

As per the Edmonton Eparchy requirements, all volunteers must complete the appropriate security screening and any fees occurred will be reimbursed.

Please talk with the Fathers (Fr. Slavko Dumeč at 780 467 6200, Fr. Joe Trykalo at 780 764 3860) or Daryl Chichak at 780 450 1813 or Greg Balko at 780 457 5266 if you want more information.
